Sri B. D. JATTI.—If the name of that gentleman is not found in this list, I have no information.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—Similarly there are 7 other persons who are not owners of land but whose properties have been attached. Their names are not shown here. So, is this list complete or partial ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In the records available with me, the names mentioned by the Hon ble Member cannot be found.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—The price of paddy is calculated by the Government at the rate of Rs. 20 per bag whereas it is Rs. 30 in the market.

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In Belgaum it is the second variety and not the first variety that is available and the market rate for that, is between Rs. 20 and 25 per bag.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—Serial No. 52 is one Smt. Droupadi Narayan Patil. Her assessment is only 84 N.P. Still one new brand cycle was attached from her house and so she had to pay this amount.

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Whether it is new brand or old brand, the property has been attached.

Sri G. N. PUTTANNA.—There are a number of Patils in this list. Are they village officers or is it their surname ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In North Karnatak there are a number of Patils. Those who do the work of Patil are officiating Patils and in the case of others it is their surname.

Sri G. N. PUTTANNA.—Are there any officiating Patils in this list ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—I do not think so.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—124 bags of paddy were attached whereas the Government have given the total number of bags attached as 102. What has happened to the remaining 22 bags ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—It is the imagination of the Hon'ble Member. Whatever is given in the list is correct.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—Will the Government refrain from mentioning the castes of persons as it is done in this list ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In our area there are people by that surname. It is not caste.

(Sri L. B. Birje in Marathi.)

Sri V. S. PATIL.—Are the Government going to sell the attached articles according to the law by open auction or are they going to follow the same procedure which they followed at Belgaum ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The rules under the Land Revenue Code will be observed. Beat of drums, if necessary, will be there and every formality will be observed.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—If the Government had observed the rules nobody would have come here to ask the question. You have not observed them and that is why we are asking this question.

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Government will observe all the rules. If the M.E.S. wants to get popularity by putting this question, I am helpless.

Sri V. S. PATIL.—When the attachment was going on, in order to obstruct it, was there any satyagraha and, if so, how many people were arrested ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Satyagraha has been stopped long back. This is no-tax campaign and if anybody had obstructed the revenue officers in their work, he might have been arrested under the law.
